

Parents: Speak Speak Often

Car crashes are a leading cause of teen deaths in New York State.

An involved parent can help cut a teen's risk in half.

Discuss and comply with the NYS Graduated Drivers Licensing Law.

Set clear family driving rules, expectations and consequences.

Lead by example. Teens model your actions and may adopt your driving habits.

For more information about teen driving safety visit:

- www.safeny.ny.gov/SRO-toolkit
- www.cdc.gov/parentsarethekey
- www.teendriversource.org
- www.health.ny.gov/prevention/injury_prevention/teens

